The Morton Games has brought some of the world’s best athletes to compete in the Morton Stadium, Santry, for what is Dublin City’s only international track and field athletic meet. The Meet is promoted by Clonliffe Harriers under the direction of Noel Guidan.

In recent years athletes such as Yohan Blake(JAM), Matt Centrowitz(USA), Melissa Bishop(USA), Boris Berian(USA), and Lopez Lomoy(USA) have competed in Santry before enthusiastic and knowledgeable crowds.

This year’s Morton Games will take place on Wednesday 21st August 2019 and will be used as a fine tuning for this year’s IAAF World Athletic Championships in Doha and once again organisers expect that the Meet will attract athletes from all parts of the globe. The 2018 Morton Games attracted athletes from no less than 25 different countries.

The 2019 Morton Games once again will be livestreamed with a highlights programme broadcast on an international television station. The Meet will include once again the most famous race in Irish athletics the Morton Mile, Women’s 1500, Men’s 100, Women’s 200, Men’s 400, 800s for men and women, Women’s High Jump, and Men’s Javelin competition. The Morton Games has the benefit of a European Athletics permit
